

6-Day Resurrection Eggs

Cut out each verse and place inside an Easter egg along with the item listed in parenthesis. Open one egg a day starting the Tuesday before Easter so that you open the final egg on Easter morning. All Scriptures are taken from the International Children's Bible.

Day One (bread crumb): Jesus ate dinner with his friends.

“When the time came, Jesus and the apostles were sitting at the table. He said to them, ‘I wanted very much to eat this Passover meal with you before I die.’” – Luke 22:14-15

Day Two (cross): The next day, Jesus died on the cross.

“Carrying his own cross, Jesus went out to a place called The Place of the Skull. (In the Jewish language[a] this place is called Golgotha.) There they nailed Jesus to the cross. They also put two other men on crosses, one on each side of Jesus with Jesus in the middle.” – John 19:17-18

Day Three (strip of cloth): He was wrapped in cloth and placed in a tomb.

“These two men took Jesus’ body and wrapped it with the spices in pieces of linen cloth. (This is how the Jews bury people.)” – John 19:40

Day Four (rock): A stone was placed in front of the tomb.

“Joseph [a disciple of Jesus] took the body, wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, and placed it in his own new tomb that he had cut out of the rock. He rolled a big stone in front of the entrance to the tomb and went away.” – Matthew 27:59-60

Day Five (empty): Jesus’ friends came to the tomb and saw the stone had been moved. The tomb was empty!

“Very early on the first day of the week, the women came to the tomb where Jesus’ body was laid. They brought the spices they had prepared. They found that the stone had been rolled away from the entrance of the tomb. They went in, but they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.” – Luke 24:1-3

Day Six (candy): Jesus is alive! That’s the sweet surprise of Easter.

“The angel said to the women, ‘Don’t be afraid. I know that you are looking for Jesus, the one who was killed on the cross. 6 But he is not here. He has risen from death as he said he would. Come and see the place where his body was.’” – Matthew 28:5-6
